SHEENA ZADEH
AND GREG YAITANES
NOVEMBER 23, '12
REIMS, FRANCE

> FEATURE WEDDING: “The circumstances that got me there that day were so unlikely that the only way we have ever been able to explain it, is as an act of fate.”

Sheena and Greg met on the set of House. “The circumstances that got me there that day were so unlikely that the only way we have ever been able to explain it, is as an act of fate,” says Sheena. It was really more of a collision than a meeting, and since that day, they have been inseparable.

When they were dating for about six months, they took a trip to Paris. They rented a car and drove to Chateau Les Crayères in the Champagne region, and “were awestruck by the natural beauty of the region and the stunning chateau,” remembers Sheena. “As we explored the building and the grounds, I couldn’t help thinking that it would be the perfect place to host a destination wedding.” Not intending to scare her boyfriend of six months, Sheena kept the thought to herself. But when they were checking out, Sheena heard Greg quietly ask at the front desk if they ever hosted events like weddings. “It was so fearless and romantic of him, and we set off to Croatia glowing and in love,” remarks Sheena.

A year later they were engaged, and while they looked at many venues domestically, there was really never one that could compare to Chateau Les Crayères. The wedding was a dream weekend, recalls Sheena. It began with a private tour and tasting of the caves of Veuve Clicquot, followed by a sumptuous, culinary experience for the rehearsal dinner at Le Jardin. "It was the most magnificent wedding any of our guests had ever attended," boasts Sheena. "From the candlelit ceremony, to the multi-course dinner prepared by chef Philippe Mille in the two-Michelin-star restaurant, to fire breathing burlesque dancers and a party that went until five in the morning, we can easily say it was a weekend that no one will ever forget."
